PRESIDENT'S LETTER

Dear Fellow Adlerians,
While attending the American Counseling Association Convention recently I took part, out of curiosity, in a workshop titled "Adler-Style Kung Fu." This very interesting workshop turned out to be a reminder that we can incorporate Adlerian principles like encouragement and social interest into whatever activities we are engaged. It reminded me that Adlerians tend to be a creative lot who see Individual Psychology as more a life style than just a therapeutic framework. Please come join us at our meetings and plan to attend our conference in September to learn and share practical ways to make both our clients' lives and our own lives better.

Phil Morris, Ph.D., President, SCSAP
