PRESIDENT'S LETTER

Dear Fellow Adlerians,

Thanks to all who were able to come and support another fine conference this year! What a wonderful opportunity to gather, meet new friends, connect with old acquaintances, expand your knowledge of Adlerian Psychology---and get education credit! Special applause to our friends Jim Holder and Betty Haeussler, twin recipients of our Arlis Epps Social Interest recognition award. Jim gave a wonderful keynote address and made other grand contributions. Betty has been such a great steward for us over the years, riding herd on our bookstore. Congratulations to you both! Our November 1 meeting will be our Conference After-Action Meeting. Please come if you can. If you aren't able to be there, send me any further Conference feedback at john.arnold@firstsuneap.com.

Be alert to a posting for our yearly Holiday Party. My wife and I have our White Elephant gifts all arranged. Join us in November for the meeting and in December for the party.

Sincerely,

John Arnold, President SC Society of Adlerian Psychology

SCSAP REPRESENTATIVE ATTENDS NASAP BOARD AND COR MEETING

Kathy Walton will be our representative at the NASAP Council of Representatives meeting October 21-22, in Ft. Wayne, IN. Kathy is also co-chairperson of the NASAP Long Range Planning Committee and she, along with her co-chair, Marion Balla, will report the Committee's recommendations to the Board and COR as it concludes two years of work. Kathy will provide a report of her experiences during the November 1, SCSAP meeting.

ADLERIAN INTERNATIONAL SUMMER INSTITUTE TO BE HELD IN THE U.S.

North Americans have an infrequent opportunity to attend the International Adlerian Summer Institute (ICASSI) on their own continent, July 16-27, 2017. The Institute will be within easy driving distance from South Carolina as it will be held at Butler University, outside of Indianapolis. You may access the ICASSI web site at www.ICASSI.net.

Also consider SCSAP will be providing some scholarship help to attend ICASSI to those who send a letter of request to SCSAP President, John Arnold. Those who have been active with SCSAP in one form or another will be given priority as the Executive Committee reviews scholarship applications. John's email address is john.arnold@firstsuneap.com
