PRESIDENT'S LETTER

Dear Fellow Adlerians,

Many thanks to Frank and Kathy Walton for their hospitality at our June picnic. What a relaxing time, sitting by the pool, catching up with each other and hearing the plans for the summer! Glad to see all those who were there—and thanks for the many culinary contributions.

It's a busy time on the calendar, as in the blink of an eye September will be here and our conference upon us. Please join us for our August 13th meeting on the campus of Columbia College in Columbia as we review the logistics, the program and the needed volunteers that all go into a successful conference. The conference will hold some novelty, as we re-configure our Saturday slots to get the most from our keynote speaker, Dr. Peter Breggin. It's an exciting time in the profession of counseling and human services. With insurance changes and a new DSM out, you'll want to hear Dr. Breggin's ideas. And with a rich legion of fine presenters filling out the rest of the conference, we'll have an abundance of riches. Please join us on August 13, as we prepare for the September 27-29th Conference.

John Arnold, Ph.D., LPC

ANNUAL CONFERENCE FEATURES "THE CONSCIENCE OF PSYCHIATRY:" DR. PETER BREGGIN

Dr. Breggin's keynote presentation on September 8, is entitled: "Drug – Free Therapy for Adults and Children, including ADHD." He has published more than 40 peer-reviewed articles and more than 20 books including the best seller: Talking Back to Prozac.

We will depart from our typical Saturday format in that Dr. Breggin will be the sole presenter from 9:15 a.m. until 11:15 a.m. At 11:30 Dr. Breggin will take questions until 12:45 p.m., while three additional 75 minute presentations will be offered concurrently. In the afternoon there will be two 75 minute blocks with six presentations in Block 3 and five presentations in Block 4.

We have been able to attract six top presenters to offer workshops all day Friday and six additional excellent presenters to offer workshops from 9:00 a.m. until 1:00 p.m. Sunday.

Our presenters are coming from ten states, Canada, Jamaica, and Romania.

The conference brochure will be sent to members of SCSAP and NASAP within 10 days and we expect to have the registration brochure available on the SCSAP web site for on-line registration by July 20.

A complimentary hospitality evening will be held Friday evening, while Saturday will include hors d'oeuvres and cash bar at 5:00 p.m. with a sing-a-long, and line dancing at pool side later in the evening.

NASAP 2013

The North American Society of Adlerian Psychology convention in San Diego was delightful. Of course, San Diego was attractive, but additionally, there was a diverse selection of programs and the cost of lodging was relatively modest. (Of course, few sites can compare with our SCSAP room rate of $100 per night for a room overlooking the ocean.) Next year NASAP will be held much closer to home. The site is downtown Chicago.

ICASSI 2014

The International Adlerian Summer Institute for 2013 will be about to begin in the Netherlands when you receive this issue of our newsletter. In order to plan ahead, you may wish to know that ICASSI will be held in historic Bath, England in summer, 2014.
