PRESIDENT'S LETTER

Dear Fellow Adlerians

Hope you'll take a break from your Springtime prep work and join us in Columbia at the Airport Campus of Midlands Technical College. We'll have a brief educational program followed by our business meeting. For those interested in Adlerian psychology, there is good stuff on the calendar. NASAP meets in Bloomington, MN, May 12-15, 2016. If you've been to the SC Conference, You'll recognize the names of many of our presenters. And for the international traveler, ICASSI is a wonderful opportunity to study with Adlerians from around the globe in Trencianske Teplice, Slovakia. Closer to home, we begin the marathon preparation for our September conference. September 23-25, 2016. Consider proposing a presentation. And if you've got "Gently-used Adlerian books you'd like to donate to us for re-sale, do let us know. Hope to see you at the meeting. We have the little money that we need to make the wheels go round. We DO need more willing hearts and helping hands!

Regards,
John Arnold, President SC Society of Adlerian Psychology

ICASSI IN SLOVAKIA

Many participants at the International Adlerian Summer Institute have found it to be an experience that impacts them in a life-changing way, personally or professionally. The area where the institute will be held in Slovakia, along with the Slovakian capital, Bratislava, are remarkably attractive places to spend some time. If transporting yourself to Europe is out of the question, consider that this unique institute will be held in North American at Butler University in Indiana in 2017. ICASSI provides the opportunity to study and live with approximately 300 participants and faculty members from 25 to 30 countries.
